Holy Week

You won’t want to miss Palm Sunday, Holy Week, or Easter at CCSM.

March 25 | Palm Sunday: The Donkey Returns... Sermon: Waving the Palms, Witnessing the Passion

March 25 | Interfaith Seder • 4pm at the Congregational Church of Belmont (see more information on page 7)

March 29 | Holy Thursday • 7pm, Kloss Hall
We will commemorate Holy Thursday by sharing a meal (Jorge cooking) around tables in Kloss Hall. During the evening we will sing, share scripture and hear short reflections by George Snobe, Alicia Santamaria and Judi Powell. It will be a spiritually meaningful service.

March 30 | Good Friday Service at 7pm, hosted by CCSM, accompanied by 7 other churches as we reflect together on the 7 last words of Christ. Kibbie will give the reflection from CCSM; Lynnelle leads the joint choir.

April 1 | Easter Experience Resurrection!

8am: Early Service. Celebrate resurrection at our early service led by the youth.

10:30am: Easter Celebration. Our Easter service is always one of the year’s highlights. Come early to get a seat and be prepared to experience resurrection!

There will be Easter activities for the children after the Children’s Message in worship—cookies and eggs to decorate, wild creations to build with egg cartons, and more crafts and activities in the Buckham Room.

Sundays in April

Celebrating Resurrection throughout the Cosmos!

❖ Nature-lovers, Come on Out! ❖

We will continue our resurrection theme and extend it to the cosmos. God’s glory is everywhere, in the sacred and the secular, and in every form of life. To live fully into this reality involves caring for the earth and its ecosystems. Environmental concerns are spiritual concerns. As Wendell Berry said, “There are no unsacred places, there are only sacred places and desecrated places.”

April 8 • Re-creation: The Resurrected Community. An inspirational service where three CCSM members will share their own stories of resurrection.

April 15 • Re-Creation: We Are Salt and Light. Environmental concerns are spiritual concerns. (Penny)

April 22 • Re-Creation: Every Day Is Earth Day. Our children will help lead our Earth Day service and call on the four elements. Special guest preacher: Joliene Wade Gatlin!

April 29 • Re-Creation: Eco-Habits of the Heart. Practicing resurrection in our eco-relationships and finding hope in the midst of climate change. (Penny)

Can the Bible Be Fun?

Ask a fourth or fifth grader. Their February Bible Night mini-retreat included scrambling to put the books of the Bible back in order, huddling to worship in the church “catacombs,” eating biblical food (the dried dates weren’t a favorite), and telling creation stories around the campfire. After two and a half hours, the kids didn’t want to leave! Admittedly, when the parents arrived, the kids were learning about famous Bible people by playing bingo for Oreo—the cookie equivalent of Jesus’s message that what matters most is what’s on the inside.

Come to worship April 29, and see the fifth graders receive their personal Bibles from the church.

Senior High 60 Minutes with Mike Mullery

SUNDAY, APRIL 8, 10:30AM • SPECIAL GUEST WATANI STINER

Mid High is invited as well to come talk with our special guest, Watani Stiner. Watani spoke in our worship service and Second Hour last November, and is returning to have a dialogue with our youth on the topic of Restorative Justice, and whatever else the youth would like to ask someone who was active in the Black Power movement in the 1960s, was wrongly convicted and spent 26 years in prison, escaped from San Quentin and spent 20 years as a fugitive in South America, and voluntarily surrendered to bring his children to safety. He has been called a “revolutionary elder, a storyteller and a social justice advocate passing the historical baton on to the next generation.” This is not to be missed!

Patrick’s Last Hurrah!

CONFIRMATION RETREAT • APRIL 21-22

Patrick will become a married man on April 28, the Saturday after the Confirmation Retreat. So make sure your high schooler gets in on this last opportunity to hang out with him for a weekend. All high schoolers are welcome, whether they have been to a confirmation retreat before or not. The Santa Cruz church will welcome us again; info will come later.

Don’t Forget to Plan for CAMP CAZ

Every year our children and youth describe their Camp Caz experience as life-changing—the beautiful setting, the great new friends, and the spiritual spin on every aspect of the week. One year, Kibbie posted a sign at the pool, “Please, Don’t Walk on the Water.” With sincere concern, one camper complained, “But, I don’t know how to walk on the water.” Campers may not become holy, but they do become wholly enchanted with God’s message in nature and community. Don’t let your child miss out!

- July 6-8: Caz “You & Me” Camp—entering 1-3rd graders
- July 8-14: Caz Senior High Camp—entering 10th-12th graders
- July 15-21: Caz Junior Camp—entering 4th-6th graders
- July 22-28: Caz Junior High Camp—entering 7th-9th graders

Growing Up

MID HIGH COMING OF AGE RETREAT

On Palm Sunday, while you are waving palms, eleven mid-highers will be worshipping in Danville during CCSM’s second annual Coming of Age weekend retreat. The budding adolescents will be taking a break from their busy lives on the Peninsula to discover inner resources of peace and resilience for their transition from childhood to adulthood. Through activities, songs, and discussions, they will explore what it means to “come of age” in our modern world.

And of course, an initiation is included. Last year, the youth climbed one of three tall mountains used by USGS to survey the Bay Area. This year they will tackle the second one—Mt. Diablo, considered by Ohlone to be the ancestral, sacred dwelling place of their creator gods (divine personages of Coyote, Eagle, Condor, Falcon and Hummingbird). Wonder why the Spanish called that same impressive landmark “Devil Mountain.”

Fabulous Fourteen Head for Hawaii

WESTERN REGIONAL YOUTH EVENT (WRYE) JUNE 24-JULY 1

This year WRYE will be hosted by the Hawaii UCC Conference. Not for a jaunt on the beach—this transformative experience will include service projects, worship, music, speakers, workshops, and a trip to the Polynesian Cultural Center. In extra days wrapped around the event, the CCSM high schoolers will explore more deeply the spirituality that grows from Hawaii’s natural beauty, delightful people, and tragic history (Pearl Harbor and near-destruction of the native culture since the landing of Captain Cook). The fourteen teenagers attending from our church will join about a dozen of their friends from Camp Caz who live all around Northern California.

You’ll hear more about this amazing opportunity from our youth as their departure draws closer.

Dear friends,

As I write this, students across the nation—and across the world—are pouring out of their classrooms into the streets in protest of gun violence. They will no longer remain silent. They will no longer wait for the adults to “do something.” They want to make their voices heard: their lives and the lives of their friends matter. They are sending a clear message that they know more could be done to end the senseless violence if there were simply the moral will to do so.

I am moved to tears by their prophetic witness, their courage, and their brilliant organizing. I hope we are drawing inspiration from our nation’s youth and that we will use their inspiring example to strengthen our own resolve to work for justice.

A colleague of mine shared this poem with me last week and I offer to you in the spirit of our nation’s youth and of hope for our future.

SCHOOL PRAYER
by Diane Ackerman

In the name of the daybreak and the eyelids of morning and the wayfaring moon and the night when it departs,

I swear I will not dishonor my soul with hatred, but offer myself humbly as a guardian of nature, as a healer of misery, as a messenger of wonder, as an architect of peace.

In the name of the sun and its mirrors and the day that embraces it and the cloud veils drawn over it and the uttermost night and the male and the female and the plants bursting with seed and the crowning seasons of the firefly and the apple,

I will honor all life - wherever and in whatever form it may dwell-on Earth my home, and in the mansions of the stars.

May it be so.
Peace,
Penny

End Gun Violence!

CCSM JOINS “MARCH FOR OUR LIVES” ON MARCH 24TH

On March 24, kids and families throughout the US will take to the streets to demand that their lives and safety become a priority and that we end gun violence and mass shootings in our schools today.

March For Our Lives is created by, inspired by, and led by students across the country, and is demanding that a comprehensive and effective bill be immediately brought before Congress to address these gun issues. Every kid in this country now goes to school wondering if this day might be their last. It doesn't have to be this way. Change is coming. And it starts now, inspired by and led by the kids who are our hope for the future.

SCREENING OF MAKING A KILLING: GUNS, GREED, AND THE NRA

The Ministry of Service and Justice is sponsoring a Second Hour for the screening of and discussion about this short film, by Brave New Films. The film focuses on personal stories from people across the country who have been affected by gun violence, including survivors and victims’ families. It exposes how powerful gun companies and the NRA are resisting responsible legislation for the sake of profit—and thereby putting people in danger. This film looks into gun tragedies that include unintentional shootings, domestic violence, suicides, mass shootings, and trafficking—and what we can do to put an end to this profit-driven crisis.

Come together with your church community to discuss this critical issue.

MSJ Launches the CCSM Justice Network!

As an inclusive, progressive Christian community, we are called to stand up for all of God’s people and speak out against injustice in any form. In order to be effective, we must have the ability to swiftly mobilize our wider CCSM family.

In response to the current social and political climate, MSJ (the Ministry of Service and Justice) is launching the CCSM Justice Network.

When a time-sensitive social justice action is planned, members of the Justice Network will receive text message alerts with the details about when and where to meet. For those of you who received daily Advent prayers by text, it will work in a similar way.

This network will be a powerful way for our larger CCSM family to stand up for justice and live out our calling as “God’s Hands, Feet, and Face” in the world. Please join us!

You can sign up to join the CCSM Justice Network after Sunday worship now through April 1st. Alternatively, you can sign up by sending your name, phone number (with area code please), and cell phone provider to Amie at agiordano@ccsm-ucc.org.

Easter Memorial Program

Once again we have the opportunity to remember those loved ones we have lost or to celebrate a life or event that we wish to honor. For over fifty years, this program has supported that part of the worship service that provides beauty and serenity to our services. We will not have Easter lilies in the sanctuary this year because of health concerns, but potted plants will be taken to shut-ins, bereaved, and those who need that extra gesture which signals the love and community of our church. We request a donation of $25 and appreciate your generosity.

Please carefully fill in the form by MONDAY, MARCH 26 to insure accuracy when the donor list is published on Easter Sunday. Please contact the office (650-343-3694) or Dakota Brown (415-244-3696) if you have questions.
