What are you doing this summer?

It is time to start thinking about camps and other programs!

This is a great time to start thinking about summer plans! Many families from our community love Camp Caz! It is a beautiful camp with wonderful programs for kids starting in 1st grade (with parents) and 4th grade (on their own) all the way up to youth programs and a Counsellor in Training program. Please speak with Sheryl if you are interested. It is a fantastic way to build deep friendships, learn about faith in a progressive setting, and enjoy the great outdoors.

Also, we are hoping to get a good group together to attend the UCC’s National Youth Event at Purdue University. There will also be a service project component in Chicago. The cost is $1500 which includes everything - flights, meals, registration, etc. Scholarships are available as well as many fundraising opportunities. Please speak with Sheryl asap so we know you are planning to go and can start to make arrangements. This should be an incredible experience!
Youth Update

Unfortunately, Angel Rivero, our Emerging Leader who worked with us on Wednesdays and Sundays, got a job at another church so left CCSM in January. We wish him all the best!

Our 10:45am youth class continues to learn about a different world religion each month - and February is all about Buddhism! We will have a guest speaker, Rhiana Wiggins, with us on February 2nd to share about the Buddha and her Buddhist faith and practice.

A new high school program for high school youth is volunteering at the Samaritan House meal program on 2nd Wednesdays of the month from 4-5:30pm at the Mason’s Hall (right near CCSM). This is a great way to serve the community and build your resume!

On Wednesdays, our youth continue to discuss current events and play lots of board games, and plan special intergenerational events. We are looking for adult volunteers to help with this program especially. If you are available even infrequently on Wednesdays from about 7-8:30pm, it would be wonderful to have you! It is a great group of youth and the time together concludes with a delicious meal.

YOUTH RETREATS AND CAMPS FOR KIDS AND YOUTH!
