A Word from Penny

Dear CCSM, I can hardly believe that it's time to write about Lent already. I have very much enjoyed our series on Testify to Love as we've discussed the justice issues that impact all of us.

During Lent, which begins February 18 with Ash Wednesday, we will turn again and look at different tables we sit at in our lives.

On a personal note, I have enjoyed almost eight years of sharing fellowship at tables with you. I am humbled and honored by the congregational vote on January 25 in support of my family moving down to San Mateo.

Here's how Annlee put it: With grateful heart I say "Thank you, CCSM" for your continuous generosity and support of our family. From the first warm welcome nearly eight years ago to Sunday's vote to start a pastor housing endowment, you have embraced Penny, Mercy and me and made us feel at home. Now we will be able to make our house-home in San Mateo. I am excited at the prospect of living in San Mateo County.

I join in my thanks to you. I feel so blessed to be part of this special congregation. Every year it seems to get better and better.

Penny

Godly Play Stories for February

We continue our exploration of the great parables and teachings of Jesus this month. In your Parents Pages (which the doorkeeper will hand you when you pick up your child), you will have a description of the parable and some open ended questions you can ask your child about the story for the day.

February 1 The Parable of the Good Samaritan

February 8 The Parable of the Mustard Seed

February 15 The Parable of the Great Pearl

February 22 The Parable of the Good Shepherd

March 1 Family Worship, with our 2nd-3rd graders leading our service that day

Parents: please pick your child up from their Godly Play classrooms at 11:45am, which will give them time to hear the story, engage in their chosen art response, and have time for prayer and the closing feast. We ask that you do not interrupt the classroom if you need to pick your child up early, but to please touch base with the doorkeeper when you arrive and let them invite your child to join you in the hallway. Thank you for supporting Godly Play!

Godly Play Best Practices Day

Saturday, February 21 at CCSM, 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Hosted by Rev. Dr. Laura Barnes (510 388 1111)

We invite you to join experienced Godly Play practitioners for this annual gathering facilitated by Di Pagel, Godly Play Foundation trainer, to explore best practices. This is a time to experience Godly Play as a community, and share resources and challenges with other leaders. If you plan to attend, simply register by email with Pastor Laura at lbarnes@ccsm-ucc.org. Registration closes Tuesday, February 17. Thank you!

Didgeridoos in Church? Only at CCSM...

Casting Call! Anyone who is interested in being a part of our inter-generational musical, Song of Wisdom From Old Turtle (performances on May 3) please join Carl Pantle and Julie Berk after worship on Sunday, February 8. We'll read the musical score with the Chancel and Joyful Noise Choirs together with the narration to see what parts are best for those who want to participate. ## Summer Camps are HERE!!!

Penny is going to Israel!

I am so excited to have been invited by the Jewish Community Relations Council, in cooperation with the Jewish Community Federation, to join a group of distinguished elected officials and community leaders from the San Francisco Bay Area on an in-depth study tour of Israel this coming March 19 – March 29, 2015.

Although this takes place during the last two Sundays of Lent, the Board of Ministries encouraged me to go.

Here's some information about the organization in their own words: "The JCRC represents more than 70 Jewish organizations and synagogues in public affairs and community relations matters. We care deeply about maintaining a strong relationship between Israel and the United States, and strongly support efforts that will bring about a lasting, just peace, and security for Israelis and Palestinians. While we have a point of view, we believe that the most effective study tour exposes participants to a full picture of Israeli society, from left to right, religious to secular, Jewish, Arab, Muslim, and Christian. You will be informed by the realities experienced by Israel's diverse citizenry, on the ground, and experience Israel beyond the media headlines."

Youth Service Trip to Costa Rica

The youth of CCSM thank everyone who supported us by participating in our envelope project. We have raised over $2000 towards our goal of $10,000. There are eight Senior High youth and two adults (plus Pastor Laura) who are hoping to go on this trip in June.

We will be working with two local agencies: Hogar Belen (Bethlehem House for young mothers and their children) and Hogar Un Buen Samaritano (House of the Good Samaritan for men with HIV/AIDS). We will be hosted by Ruta Verde (The Green Way), a local family-owned firm that specializes in youth tours and environmental awareness education. We will visit a local coffee farm, Doka Estates, to learn about coffee agriculture and production, along with the importance of fair wage payments. We will also tour the Arenal Volcano National Park where we will learn all about the critical need for us to all care for our rainforests due to the fragile nature of the world's ecosystems.

Our next fundraiser will be on Sunday evening, March 15 at 5pm. We will host a Costa Rican meal and offer many intriguing auction items such as group sewing lessons, salsa dance lessons and valuable parking spots here at CCSM. Make plans to join us! Thank you for your ongoing support of our youth programs!

How the Jewish Community Creates a Values-Based Advocacy Agenda

A workshop by Abby Porth

Sunday, February 8, 11:45 am-12:45 pm, Fireplace Room

There is an old adage that with two Jews there are three opinions. The Bay Area Jewish community defies this stereotypical phenomenon, and through civil discourse within the diverse Jewish community, develops consensus positions and a unified advocacy strategy on the most important social justice and Jewish security issues of the day. It is compelled to do this work through the spiritual wisdom of our tradition, such as "darchei shalom," or pursuing paths to peace with our neighbors, "b'tselem Elohim," or the understanding that we are all created by the spark and in the image of the Divine, and "lo ta'amod al dam reycha," or the imperative to not stand idly by. The Jewish community interprets these imperatives through its work – from confronting poverty to advocating for comprehensive immigration reform, from service projects to compassionately administer to the homeless to interfaith/cross-cultural education about Israel. Join us in hearing about this approach, including some case studies in how the local Jewish community has developed consensus around issues in which there are divergent views within the community.

ABBY MICHELSON PORTH is the Associate Executive Director of the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC). Her work encompasses the organization's external affairs. In 2010, Abby pioneered the JCRC's "Year of Civil Discourse Initiative," which provided skills training and programming aimed at elevating and making more meaningful intra-community discussions about controversial issues. That program, which touched over 1,000 Jewish clergy, community leaders, and members has now been replicated in Jewish communities around the country.

HIT THE ROAD!

You have been so generous in helping raise funds for various community projects, we thought you might like to meet the people you help.

- Any Wednesday, 9:30am, do a ride-along with a Peninsula Food Runner.
- Thursday, February 12, meet farm workers in Pescadero at Puente, the community service center for the South SMCnty coast. Carpools will leave about 2:00pm. (Note: This trip is now FULL.)
- Tour the county's recycling center and watch all the amazing machinery on Thursday, February 19, at 9:30am at Shoreway Environment Center, 333 Shoreway Road, San Carlos (or the church parking lot at 9am). See the Greening of CCSM at work.
- Sunday, February 22, visit the InnVision Shelter Network (IVSN) local shelters. Our own Lynnelle Bilsey, staff at IVSN, will guide us to several shelters, including First Step for Families, The Vendome, Maple Street, and Haven House, leaving the CCSM parking lot entrance by carpool at 12:15 and returning by about 3:30. Thank you, Lynnelle, for this special "Encounter" opportunity! See, learn, and understand.
- Also February 22 (and other fourth Sundays), worship and deliver lunches at the Open Cathedral (SF Night Ministry) in San Francisco. Carpools leave our parking lot about 1:00PM (or traveling by BART).
- Hit the road and join the team learning about border issues in Tijuana, April 17-21.

For more information or to save you a spot, please email msj@ccsm-ucc.org. All ages welcome.

Supporting Refugee & Immigrant Youth in our Community

The Refugee Foster Care program places unaccompanied refugee and immigrant minors, who have been separated from their families because of war, persecution and/or trafficking, into loving foster homes. In the Bay Area, these youth are placed into foster homes by Catholic Charities of Santa Clara County. These newly arrived youth are generally in the 15-17 year age range and attend local public high schools. The greatest need is for foster families willing to welcome a child into their home and family, although there are many other ways to get involved.

For more information, please contact Karen Boncher, Refugee Foster Care Outreach Coordinator at Catholic Charities: 408-325-5202/kboncher@catholiccharitiesscc.org.

ONE MAN CAN DO A LOT!

An entire van-load of blankets and pillows was donated to InnVision via CCSM. George Snode (the smile in the choir) arranged for Hilton Hotels to ship all that bedding to CCSM; we passed it on to InnVision's shelter network. Thanks to George many previously-homeless families will sleep in comfort tonight.

WHEELS ARE ROLLING

You might spot the first eleven CCSM bicycles on the streets of San Mateo. The Wheels team carried our donated bikes to the Helds' garage, restored them to safe operational level, lubricated and aligned, cleaned and test drove them, and are now distributing them to those less fortunate than us in the neighborhood.

Tony Gallo reports, "Everyone brought different skills to the garage; we all learned, we worked as a team, and got to know each other better as we served our community. The weather was perfect to boot. Our helping 11 families in the neighborhood is truly the face, hands, and feet of God at work."

Thanks to all of you who donated those bikes for a great cause, to Peter and Gail for loaning us space, Tool Men (Peter Held, Mark Meyers, Tony Brown, Jim Shawl, and Warren Long), Pizza Princess (Kathy Gallo), Chief Washer (Linda Skromme), and the Big Wheel (Tony Gallo) for all their work. And thank you Gary Moore at Talbots Cycles who gave us a great discount on over $300 worth of parts and Manny Santamaria who helped us find the private donor from the Silicon Valley Community Foundation who gave $2,000 towards helmets and locks. Let's keep those Wheels rolling! Let the office know or email msj@ccsm-ucc.org if you have a bicycle to donate or are eager to join the Wheels team.

Human Trafficking

by Tina Carter

For more than two years, a group of clergy and other interested leaders have gathered together in response to the growing awareness that human beings are being commercially and sexually exploited right in our backyard. The group consulted with a panel of experts from local anti-trafficking organizations to become more educated on the issue of modern day slavery. These faith leaders have been compelled to stand with and for the victims of this heinous industry, many of whom are children. In keeping with the value of human dignity inherent in the faiths represented by the faith leader coalition, the leaders share a strong commitment and desire to use their influence to promote a safer, more just San Mateo County by shedding light on the issue of human trafficking through a large community event hosted on January 11th at CCSM.

The event, sponsored by Silicon Valley Community Foundation, featured an eye-opening documentary entitled In Plain Sight highlighting six extraordinary women (and the organizations they lead) who work passionately to care for survivors and stop sex trafficking in the United States.

As a first effort, the gathering was a tremendous success, with over 350 people in attendance. The insightful contribution by those on the program helped set the stage for the documentary, and for the meaningful dialogue that followed. The event culminated with a sobering candlelighting moment as guests transitioned to Kloss Hall for an informative reception featuring twelve local agencies.

To learn how you can make a difference in 10 minutes, 10 days, 10 months, visit baatc.org/take-action.html.

Making the Invisible Visible Project Comes to CCSM

"Could It Happen To You? A Story of Elder Abuse"
Sunday, March 1, 11:45 a.m., Kloss Hall

by Melodie Lew, AAPC Chair

On March 1, after the Sunday service, the San Mateo County Commission on Aging, Adult Abuse Prevention Committee (AAPC) will present its Making the Invisible Visible (MIV) Project in Kloss Hall. The MIV Project uses an innovative and powerful approach to promote elder financial and emotional abuse awareness and education in order to prevent elder abuse.

In 2013, AAPC began working with Eyal Rabinovitch, who is a member of the Theatre of the Oppressed, an organization which uses theatre to promote social and political change. Our effort follows a forum theatre format and involves a 30-35 minute skit on elder financial and emotional abuse followed by a 50 minute facilitated interactive dialogue with the audience. The audience is invited to see how they might change the situation just presented to them, and what obstacles might interfere with this. The short play is a real-world composite created by the troupe itself from its members' own experiences.

Eyal Rabinovitch has been our director and highly skilled post-play facilitator. The troupe itself is composed of volunteers with very little or no acting experience and Eyal has developed them and created an exciting and very moving experience for both the troupe and audience. The main protagonist is CCSM's own Lynn Nieberding, while I have assisted with production and stage managing.

This MIV play entitled, "Could It Happen To You? A Story of Elder Abuse," covers elder financial abuse perpetrated by a son on his mother and touches on emotional abuse as well. Humor is used often which helps to lighten the heavy topic

We encourage folks to stay after the service on March 1 and see this valuable awareness raising presentation in Kloss Hall.

From Your Moderator

by Jim Berthelsen

2015 promises to be another exciting year at CCSM. We are truly becoming the Peninsula's Progressive Christianity "hub" as more and more community activities take place in our facility.

The Winter Congregational Meeting was held on Sunday, January 25th. Status updates were provided by Veril Phillips (proposed four-way covenant with Jerri Handy as she prepares to minister at Las Memorias), Doug Henton (over 250 survey responses are being reviewed and summarized by the Organization Design Task Force), and Rev. Dr. Penny Nixon (a new justice initiative in formation at CCSM).

We reviewed 2014 financial results, approved the 2015 operating budget, and established "Ministry of Service and Justice" as the official name for "MSJ". See Jim Lindsay's Stewardship and Budget Update (below) for more details on 2014 and 2015 finances.

With Penny's long-term commitment to CCSM and announcement that she and her family will be moving from the East Bay to San Mateo in 2015, we also approved creation of a "Minister Housing Endowment Fund." We will allocate up to $400,000 of our endowment to establish this fund to provide current and future ministers with mortgage loan financing towards purchasing a local residence.

SFO will create a "Minister Housing Endowment Lending Policy" document for review and approval by the Board of Ministries before any dollars are lent from the fund. An update on approved policy specifics and any loan disbursements from the fund will be provided to the congregation at the June Annual Meeting.

I am grateful for Penny's long-term commitment to CCSM, the many ways you support this beloved spiritual community including its outreach programs, and the opportunity to serve as your Moderator.

Thank you!

Stewardship & Budget Update

by Jim Lindsay

Thanks to the wonderful generosity of the congregation, 2014 pledge income exceeded the budgeted amount. This additional income, along with a couple other revenue sources that exceeded budget plus a few expense categories that were less than budgeted, resulted in an end of year net income of just over $11,000. What an amazing accomplishment!

The weekly Ministry of Service and Justice (MSJ) plate collections in 2014 were $41,285. When combined with Our Church's Wider Mission giving from the budget the total was 8.3% of 2014 revenue. When in-kind giving by the church, such as the Easter boxes, Thanksgiving boxes, Adopt a Family Christmas gifts, the monthly food collections for Call Primrose and the dinners for the Home and Hope guests are added, the total grows to 9.4% of 2014 revenue.

The 2015 budget that was approved at the Congregational Meeting has another record pledge amount of $568,000, which matches what has already been received in pledge commitments. Total revenue for 2015 is projected to be $770,312 and total expenses are $770,253 producing a balanced budget for this year.

Anyone wishing a copy of the final 2014 financial results or the 2015 budget can request one from the church office. Thanks again for making 2014 so successful.

Daytime Book Club: The Giver by Lois Lowry

Wednesday, February 18 (Ash Wednesday), 1:30 – 3:00pm
Fireplace Room

One of Rev. Penny's recommended readings, this story (which was recently made into a movie starring Jeff Bridges) is a short yet thought-provoking read. Although penned close to 25 years ago, it's surprisingly timely, especially for us living in the heart of Silicon Valley. Lowry's book is prone to eliciting strong reactions to the story; come join Elrae Bilsey, share your thoughts, and engage in an interesting and lively discussion of the book.

Come share a Sunday morning discussion about the Lord's Prayer. Julie Lenden and Pastor Jerri will facilitate a lively discussion on a progressive approach to this prayer we often pray together in worship. It is a great opportunity to see and hear that prayer with new eyes and new ears. Praying Like Jesus is a short book by James Mulholland and easy to read. If you wish to read it beforehand, that would be wonderful, but it's not necessary.

Global Ministries Highlight

by Jerri Handy

The process of being appointed as Mission Personnel with Global Ministries involves attending Mission Conference. Marge Boyd and I were there in August of 2014 as part of our preparation for serving with Las Memorias.

Mission Personnel gather retirees, furlough-ers, and newly appointed folks together to share hopes for their place of service. Having retirees present was so helpful for answering questions about worries and fears, as well as gaining friendships. We learned a great deal in our workshops on cross-cultural relationships, long distance relationships with churches and family, the nuts and bolts of reporting emergencies impacting our International Mission Partner, sharing stories of the work and presence of God when we talk to or write updates for Global Ministries or blogs, infectious disease concerns for our particular places of service, and of course time to talk, walk, laugh, cry and pray together.

What I found to be so encouraging was the number of 25-30 year olds, both female and male, who were embarking on a year as interns in so many places in the world. These young people understand the meaning of PRESENCE... walking alongside mission partners, reciprocal sharing of skills and understanding of the world and God at work in that particular part world. These young adults were courageous, funny, strong people of faith. Their desire to be the hands, feet and face of God in the world strengthened my faith, gave me courage. I still pray for Lauren and Scott. I committed to them that I would be praying for them this year of their service. I also met Andi and Lindly, a lesbian couple who had finished one term of service and were ready to go back out again.

I encourage you to get acquainted with someone serving as Mission Personnel... pray for them, email them and hear stories of God at work in the part of the world where they serve. If you are, or know of, a young person who would like an opportunity to serve as a Global Ministries Intern, check out the website—you'll see Matthew in the photo. I am praying for him too.
